Rank of the Adjutant General.

The men of the regular army are considerably interested in a bill which is pending in both houses of congress to raise the rank of the army from brigadier to real of the purple delegate to the purple of the purple delegate to the purple delegate raise the rank of the adjutant general of the army from brigadier to major general. An attempt was made to pass this bill in the last congress, but it came so late that a single objection killed it. Now it is made a part of a bill to authorize a chaplain for each regiment of the regular army and also to provide for the control of the claims and demands of all perso against the claims and demands of all perso against the claims and demands of Millon in said district decease of Millon in said district decease of Millon in said demands of Millon in said d neoski village Cotchester town, in said dis-trict on the toiri Fridays of May and September next, at 19 o'clock a, m. on each of said days Dated this Eld day of March, 1996, HENRY CONLIN JOHN II McGRICEVY, 28.W.3W Commissioners.

Ward, late of Burlington in said district, deceased, was pitce-fried to the court aforesaid, for probate.

And it is ordered by said court that one 20th day of April, 198, at the Probate Court rooms, it said Burlington, be assigned for proving said instrument, and that notice thereof he given to all persons concerned, by publishing this order three weeks successively in the Burlington Weekly Free Press, a newspaper published at and Burlington, previous to the time appointed.

open. There has never been any dith culty in seeing him. It makes no difference who the man is, whether a cabinet officer, member of congress or a private in the army, all got a hearing in General Corbin's office, and he is quick to decide all questions that are brought before him. This very efficiency has commended the bill which is now pending. If it ever gets to a vote in either house, it will pass.
